MEDICAL FAKER READY

One of Prisoners Taken in Quack Museum Raid Promises to Reveal Frauds.

NEW YORK, April 22 .- Police author ities said today that one of the fiftyfour operators of medical museums and their assistants, arrested here yesterday in one of the most sweeping raids upon alleged medical imposters ever conducted in this city, had promised to make a confession. His statement, the police assert, will reveal the workings of a system of national scope for extorting money by fraudulent physi-

The chief operator of the museums under arrest here is alleged by the police to have accumulated a fortune of more than $1,000,000 by operating a chain of medical offices with free museums as "feeders" in New York, Newark, N. J.; Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburgh and half a dozen other cities.

Mrs. Marian Clarke, investigator of the state department of labor, estimated that fraudulent physicians have collected $500,000 a year from "patients" in this city. Most of this came from poor persons and aliens who could not speak English.

Some of the methods alleged to have been used by the museum conductors included the sale of a two-ounce bottle included the sale of a two-ounce bottle of ordinary drinking water to a woman for $300, under the pretense that it was "radium water," and the sale for $500 of a box of "magic pills" guaranteed to cure tuberculosis.

Chief Magistrate McAdoo, before whom the prisoners were arraigned, said: "The work of these men must be checked or it will lead to dreadful consequences."

Large Operator Caught.

Included among the prisoners was Henry J. Schierson, who was said by George W. Whiteside, attorney for the county medical society, to be one of the largest operators of medical institutes in the United States, with offices throughout the country. All the museums raided have been closed by the police pending the hearing of the cases April 28.

night, Mrs. Dearborn stepped on the hand, shook it warmly. The waiting delegates took this demonstration for what it meant, recognizing the fact that Mrs. Story had been successful. A storm of applause broke out, and from all parts of the hall handker-chiefs were waved, while bouquets were showered on the platform in tribute to the re-election of the president general. As the cheering and applause died away the members of the New York delegation, Mrs. Story being a resident of that state, stood and sang their state song, whereupon the demonstration broke out afresh, and it was almost half an hour before the chairman of the tellers was able to make herself heard with the results of the balloting for other offices. As the vote was announced for each office the applause was renewed, each successful candidate being cheered. When Mrs. Guernsey appeared on the platform to congratulate her successful opponent the loyal adherents of the Kansas leader gave her an ovation. Mrs. Guernsey, with tears in her eyes and in a voice that shook with emotion, thanked her supporters for their faith in her and for the efforts they had made for her election, and pledged to Mrs. Story in a few words thanked the congress for the honor it had bestowed upon her.
